We are THEATER TO GO a full service theatrical production company with a specialty in Interactive Comedy Murder Mysteries. Some of our clients have included AT&T, BRISTOL MYERS SQUIBB, MERCK, ACCENTURE, and JOHNSON & JOHNSON. We have performed publicly at restaurants around New Jersey, and on scenic train rides and dinner cruises as well as for fundraisers for various social service organizations and community groups. Our shows have been commissioned by corporate clients and universities in West Virginia, Florida, Indiana, and California as well as for the National Lieutenant Governors Association Conference in Little Rock Arkansas.

CORPORATE TEAM BUILDING, CONVENTIONS AND LIVE INDUSTRIALS

We provide a variety of entertainment and team building events for corporations, conventions and training sessions. You can select from our list of existing programs, or have us write one to your specifications. We can educate while entertaining your group. Our events help your organization work as a team. Between 1999 and 2005, we were the resident theater company for Fire Engineering Magazine's annual FDIC Convention in Indianapolis and Sacramento, for which we wrote and performed instructional productions.

MURDER MYSTERIES

What distinguishes us from other theatrical groups is that we customize our shows to fit your particular needs and clientele. In addition, our productions rely heavily on audience participation and improvisation. This means that we are able to adjust to the needs of the audience and can include them in the execution of the script. We have several themes available, including a Political Campaign Fund Raising Dinner, A Speakeasy With A 1920's Theme, A 1940's Radio Show, A Mob Murder, An Inheritance Murder, A Wedding, A Hawaiian TV Show, A Western Saloon Murder, A Costume Party, A Corporate Murder, and our writers are now at work developing new scripts. All the shows involve much audience participation and during the course of the evening, someone gets killed. The authorities single out the suspects, and the audience is asked to help solve the crime. Of course the ones who help us the most are rewarded. Any of these productions could easily be adapted to any environment, including restaurants, hotels, picnics, parties or private homes.

WE, THE JURY

We, the Jury (by exclusive arrangement with Bruce Whitehill) is a comic audience participation jury trial in which guests become the jury in an "experimental trial system" which tries all the defendants at once. Guests hear the evidence and question multiple suspects charged with the same crime, and after deliberation, decide on the guilt or innocence of the suspects. Special roles for lucky guests include bailiffs, court reporter, court artist and witnesses. The audience must unravel evidence, decipher clues and question suspects in this entertaining format. Bring your sharp mind and quick wit, and be prepared for a great time! Great for Team Building Events!

The great chef Sal Ladd has died and the audience is welcomed as members of the extended family to hear what he has left them in his Will. Meet his family - his daughter, Ma Schrooms, her husband Pa Tatoes and their three children Sue Keeney, Tom Atoe and the lovely (but dim) Cornana Cobb. Rose Tabeeth, his loyal nurse, will also be there to hear Chef Sal's attorney read the Will. Chef Sal has willed that those who knew the most about him would inherit the most, so he devised a game entitled "The Will of Fortune" to determine the most loyal of his extended family (the audience) There is murder on everyone's mind as the inheritance disappears. A cryptic message has to be decoded to discover the criminal. During the course of the evening, someone else dies. What did they know?

MURDER IN GOLDRUST

Welcome to Goldie Barr's place, the Bar None Saloon in the days of the prospectors. Zinc Miner has just struck it rich and has called all the townfolk to the saloon for a major announcement. All the familiar Western characters will be there including Silverado the gambler; Graya Slate (the school marm); Nicholas Teller, the banker; and Platinum, the saloon siren to hear what Zinc has to say. Someone meets with foul play, and all the townfolk will have to help Sheriff Copper Potts bring order to the town of Goldrust. Of course there is audience participation (cardgames and an auction) and lots of fun!

A SLAYING IN THE SPEAKEASY

You are a guest at Big Tony's speakeasy in the 1920's. The audience is welcomed by the various members of Tony's mob and are told that he is aware that there is a police informer among them. But who is it? Various intrigues involving the principals in the story are revealed to the audience through scenes played out around them. You will meet Louie, the bookkeeper and "college man" gangster; Spats, the gang's heavy; Trixie who runs Big Tony's Place; Zelda, Tony's Girl; and Bonnie, the bouncer (and first feminist!) There is much audience participation, including a sing along, and we induct one of the audience into the Gang. During the course of the evening someone gets killed. Who did it? Was it the informer? Was it YOU?

MURDER ON THE WATERFRONT

Nolo Contendo the "Capo" of the Contendo Crime Family, is calling a meeting of the organization to make an important announcement. All the big mob families are there: The Bonanas, The Bambinos, The Parcheses, The Pottis. What does he have to say to them? Vinnie Da Pooh, his Consigliere, will make sure that order is maintained while his children, Nintendo, and DiNotta try to stay on his good side, and his wife Bimbo, will support him no matter what may happen. This show is full of surprises, and even has a séance! Join Theater to Go as we unravel the goings on of this powerful New York mob family, and enjoy some laughs along the way.

ALOHA MEANS GOODBYE...FOREVER

The audience are all "extras" in the HAWAIIAN filming of the new TV series ALOHA BLUE which is being directed by the great Rhonda Howard. You will meet the famous Hugh Hefty and the starlet, Melanie Maybe, as well as Mai Tai Mary, Don Ho Hum, and Leilani Goldstein, Hula dancer extraordinaire. This show is a play within a play, as the pilot episode "Where have all the Hula Girls Gone?" is filmed using the "extras" as hula dancers and singers as well as in other small parts. Someone gets killed in the TV pilot, but also within the acting company. Murder will be on your mind as various intrigues are revealed to the audience.

Is there sabotage in this campaign?

MURDER ON THE AIR

It's the 1930's and radio reigns! The management of WRRP radio is hosting a special broadcast of their top rated radio drama "Death by Murder" for the program's 5th anniversary. It is one of several remote broadcasts being done for charity and the "murdercast" takes place in the Crystal Room high atop the Stonefellow building, with a guest list containing the "creme de la creme" of high society. When the murder turns real, everybody's attention turns to solving the crime, (and saving their jobs) without jeopardizing the success of the broadcast!

MURDER BY MOONLIGHT

The world famous millionaire, Sunny Dial, creator of the Sunny Day Skin Care Line, is hosting his annual Costume Party on his private island. He is a lover of the occult and expects everyone to come in costume (there might even be a costume Contest!) so that they can meet his Guest of Dishonor. But who is it? Perhaps Metra Knome, the psychic knows, or Chad Neverest, investigator of the paranormal, or Penny Jalum the reporter. Is it you? Join Crystal Swatch, Cadence Tempo, Hunter quartz, and the rest of the guests for the fun and find out.

I DO, I DIE

You are all invited to the wedding reception of the year, to celebrate the marriage of Sparrow Mallard, of the popular singing group, the Two Little Nestlings, to tea magnate EF Downs. His former wife, Daphne and their son IJ are also there although IJ has not yet gotten over the strange disappearance of his former love, Robin Mallard (Sparrow's sister) who ran off with a mysterious stranger. Everyone is having a wonderful time until someone gets killed. Who did it and why?

MURDER BY PROXY

It is the annual shareholders meeting of a young, rapidly growing company called THE MOVEABLE FEAST, a chain of gourmet drive through restaurants. At the annual meeting, it turns out that not all the goings on are exactly Kosher! Someone dies and everyone is a suspect! Was it the Mob? Was it the betrayed wife, or was it you?

In all the shows, the motives are there: lust, jealousy, revenge, greed. There is much audience participation and during the course of the evening, someone gets killed. At the conclusion, the suspects are singled out by the authorities, and the audience is asked to help solve the crime. Of course the ones who help us the most are rewarded!

WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING

“What a pleasure it was to have Theater to Go at Novartis. Every detail was professional and within the bounds of good workplace humor. The intent was to have an informal, light teambuilding experience. The Theater to Go team delivered and then some. Many of the team came to tell me that they never laughed so hard with their co-workers. The actors successfully drew out some of our quiet team members- it was great to see so much participation!”

Joan McDonald

NOVARTIS

We, The Jury

As a corporate event planner, often times it is difficult to find appropriate and fun entertainment for employee and client functions. In the many years that I have been planning events, I would say, without reservation, that the Theater to Go team is truly exception, and exceeded all my expectations. The “We the Jury” performance was funny, enlightening, witty, and actively involved with the audience. Their entertainment was clean, and engaging. Ruth Markoe helped to tailor to the event to my needs, and worked with my scattered schedule to make sure that the event was a success. I will be sure to use Theater to Go Production when the next need arises, and encourage you to do the same. Rest assured that you and your group will be thrilled with the results.
